Leda Classics is a timeless collection of finely crafted hand-selected cherry veneers and hardwoods.

The Classics were influenced by European furniture styles and inspired by Mediterranean 'old-world' culture.

Classics are elegantly styled for home or office. Moderately scaled and flexible in size, it can be arranged to accommodate any space. 'Hand-blown' curved beveled glass highlight the hutches, curio and other curved door units.

The timelessness of Classics is attested to and founded with the knowledge that the collection represents Leda's longest running current design.
